1. Policy Intent

The purpose of this Policy is to protect the integrity of Fencing through the prevention, detection, and enforcement of rules relating to the manipulation of Fencing's sports competitions and associated illicit sports betting activity. Through this Policy, Australian Fencing Federation (AFF) aims to ensure that its core values, good reputation and positive behaviours and attitudes are maintained.

2. Definitions

In this Policy the following words have the corresponding meaning:

Activity means a sporting contest, match, competition, event, meeting, discussion whether in person or online, or activity (including training, camp, lesson, whether online or in-person, tour where it is endorsed by a Relevant Organisation, accreditation process, high performance activity, or any such activity), whether on a one-off basis or as part of a session, series, league, or competition, which is either sanctioned, organised, co-ordinated by, or connected-with, a Relevant Organisation.

Athlete means a person who is registered with or entitled to participate in an Activity.

Benefit means any advantage and is not limited to property¹.

Club means any club that enters a Team to participate in an Activity.

Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy means the policy adopted by AFF for the handling and resolution of allegations regarding Prohibited Conduct.

Contractor means any person or organisation engaged to provide services for, or on behalf of, a Relevant Organisation. This includes agents, advisers and subcontractors of a Relevant Organisation and Employees, officers, Volunteers, and agents of the Contractor or subcontractor.

Employee means a person employed by a Relevant Organisation.

Fencing means the sport of Fencing as governed by AFF and International Fencing Federation from time to time.

Inside Information means any information connected to the conduct, management or organisation of a sporting event that is not generally available and if it were generally available, the information, would, or would be likely to, influence a person's decision to bet on the sporting event or in making any other betting decision.

Intentional Misrepresentation has the specific meaning given in the Paralympics Australia Classification Policy as amended or replaced from time to time, but refers in general to an Athlete or Athlete support personnel intentionally misleading, or attempting to mislead, International Wheelchair and Amputee Sports Federation (IWAS) or AFF or any of their representatives as to any aspect of Para-sport classification, whether by act or omission, or to a person who engages in any type of intentional complicity with such an act or omission.

Any capitalised term not defined in this Policy has the meaning given to it in the Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy.

3. Jurisdiction

This Policy applies to:

- (a) Relevant Persons; and
- (b) Relevant Organisations.

4. Prohibited Conduct

4.1 Prohibited Conduct

A Relevant Person commits a breach of this Policy when they, either alone or in conjunction with another or others, engage in any of the following conduct:

- (a) Participate (whether by act or omission) in improperly altering the result or the course of an Activity in order to remove all or part of the unpredictable nature of the Activity to obtain a Benefit for themselves or others including by²:
 - i. the direct, pre-meditated or planned interference with the natural course of an Activity or element of an Activity³;
 - ii. providing modified or false information related to an athlete's identity or personal information;
 - iii. intentionally modifying playing surfaces, equipment or athlete's physiology to improperly influence the natural course of the event⁴;
 - iv. engaging in Intentional Misrepresentation, either by deed or omission, in relation to the existence or extent of their skills and/or the nature of their eligible impairment relevant to a Para-sport⁵.

² 'Improperly' in this context means not in accordance with standard sets of behaviour accepted in the participant's sport. Some practices in a sport may, when applying a strict interpretation without context, be seen as Prohibited Conduct, however, given the behaviour is culturally acceptable among participants and spectators of the sport, this conduct is, therefore, deemed not 'improper'. Refer to Appendix A: Examples of Prohibited Conduct for examples of acceptable and improper practices.

³ Examples may include, but not limited to, intentionally conceding points, pre-arranging the outcome of a competition, deliberate underperformance (also known as 'tanking') in any manner (through selections or not playing to a person's merits), influencing athlete selections and strategy, or intentional unfair or incorrect officiating. Refer to Appendix A: Examples of Prohibited Conduct for examples.

⁴ For the avoidance of doubt, this does not include any matters dealt with under other relevant policies relating to anti-doping, eligibility, gender identity or selection criteria.

⁵ Intentional Misrepresentation may occur prior to, during athlete evaluation and/or at any point after the allocation of sport class. It may include an athlete or athlete support personnel attempting to deceive or mislead a classifier, classification panel, an International Federation (IF), National Paralympic Committee (NPC) or National Sporting Organisation (NSO).

OFFICIAL

- (b) Place, or facilitate or assist with the making of⁶, a bet, or enter into any other form of financial speculation, on any Activity, or on any incident or occurrence in an Activity connected with a Relevant Organisation, whether or not they are participating in the Activity. For the avoidance of doubt:
- i. any bets placed by a betting syndicate or group, such as a 'punter's club', of which the Relevant Person is a member;
 - ii. an interest in any bet, including having someone else place a bet on their behalf; or
 - iii. allowing another person to place a bet using a Relevant Person's account,
- shall be treated as if the bet was placed by the Relevant Person as an individual;
- (c) Disclosure of Inside Information or Use of Inside Information, other than as required as part of their official duties;
- (d) Accept, request, seek, offer, or provide a Benefit to incite, cause or contribute to any breach of this Policy, or which might reasonably be expected to bring the Relevant Person, Relevant Organisation, or Fencing into disrepute;
- (e) Facilitate, assist, aid, abet, encourage, induce, cover-up or be complicit in any Prohibited Conduct;
- (f) Agree, conspire, plan or attempt to engage in any conduct which would be Prohibited Conduct if successful; or
- (g) Fail to promptly report, to the fullest extent of their knowledge (or of which they ought to have been reasonably aware) to the AFF or responsible Relevant Organisation if they:
- (i) are interviewed as a suspect, charged, or arrested by a law enforcement body in respect of conduct that falls within the definition of Prohibited Conduct⁷;
 - (ii) have been approached by another person, whether or not that person is bound by this policy, to engage in Prohibited Conduct;
 - (iii) know or reasonably suspect, that another person has engaged in Prohibited Conduct, or has been approached to engage in Prohibited Conduct;
 - (iv) have, or is aware or reasonably suspects that another person has, received actual or implied threats of any nature in relation to any past or proposed Prohibited Conduct; or
 - (v) have or obtain any new knowledge or suspicion regarding any possible Prohibited Conduct under this Policy, even if the Relevant Person's prior knowledge or suspicion has already been reported.

5. Reporting and Complaints

- (a) Allegations relating to any form of Prohibited Conduct under this Policy other than Intentional Misrepresentation should be submitted to AFF. Allegations relating to Intentional Misrepresentation must be submitted to either Paralympics Australia or International Wheelchair and Amputee Sports Federation in accordance with their relevant policies and procedures, whichever has jurisdiction over the matter as set out in the Paralympics Australia Classification Policy.
- (b) Complaints or Reports of Prohibited Conduct under this Policy will be managed in accordance with the AFF Complaints, Disputes and Discipline Policy. Allegations relating to Intentional Misrepresentation will be managed in accordance with the relevant policies of either Paralympics Australia or , International Wheelchair and Amputee Sports Federation as applicable.
- (c) Notification by a Relevant Person under clause 4.1(g) may be made verbally or in writing by the Relevant Person and may be made anonymously if there is a genuine concern of reprisal. A Relevant Person who makes a report anonymously is responsible for keeping a record that will allow them to confirm that they have met their obligations under clause 4.1(g).

⁶ Facilitating or assisting includes communicating in any way, including but not limited to in-person communication, using a mobile phone, computer or other electronic device, information that might give another person an unfair advantage if they were to engage in betting related to that information, other than as required as part of their official duties.

⁷ This does not apply if the reporting is not permitted by law.

6. Other Matters

6.1 Education

- (a) In order to prevent breaches of this policy, build positive behaviours in sport and protect participants from competition manipulation and associated sports gambling threats, AFF is responsible for developing and implementing an education plan addressing the content and subject matter of this Policy.
- (b) AFF should engage Sport Integrity Australia to assist in the design, implementation, and maintenance of the education plan and to determine priority education groups and associated interventions.
- (c) A Relevant Organisation may, from time to time, direct certain Participants to undertake education, which will be relevant and proportionate to their level of participation in Fencing and the associated integrity risks.
- (d) Sport Integrity Australia has developed a range of education resources and training material to support the National Integrity Framework which can be found here.

6.2 Information sharing

- (a) A Relevant Organisation may share information (including Personal Information as defined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)) at any time relating to Relevant Persons with Wagering Service Providers, law enforcement agencies, government agencies or other sporting organisations to prevent, identify and investigate alleged Prohibited Conduct, or to comply with relevant state and territory or national regulation or legislation, subject to the Privacy Act.
- (b) A Relevant Organisation may share information they receive relating to competition manipulation and sports betting with Sport Integrity Australia to enable Sport Integrity Australia to effectively perform its functions.
- (c) In sharing information, Relevant Organisations will remain bound by the legal obligations contained in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Relevant Organisation's Privacy Policy.
- (d) Relevant Persons must disclose information to AFF regarding all of their commercial agreements, interests, and connections with Wagering Service Providers. For the avoidance of doubt, this does not include the disclosure of accounts that Relevant Persons may hold with Wagering Service Providers.
- (e) A Relevant Organisation may request information from Wagering Service Providers to identify incidents of suspicious or prohibited betting transactions (including single or multiple betting transactions or market fluctuations) that may indicate or tend to indicate that Relevant Persons have engaged in Prohibited Conduct under this Policy.
- (f) To enable the Wagering Service Provider to provide such information, a Relevant Organisation may, from time to time and subject to any terms and conditions imposed by a Relevant Organisation (including in relation to confidentiality and privacy), provide to Wagering Service Providers details of Relevant Persons who are precluded by this Policy from engaging in Prohibited Conduct.
- (g) All requests for information or provision of information by a Relevant Organisation or a Wagering Service Provider shall be kept strictly confidential and shall not be divulged to any third party or otherwise made use of, except where required by law or by this Policy, is permitted by the responsible Relevant Organisation or Wagering Service Provider, or where information is already in the public domain other than because of a breach of this Policy.

6.3 Gambling Sponsorship within Fencing

- (a) AFF may enter into a commercial arrangement with a Wagering Service Provider from time to time, subject to any applicable legislative requirements.
- (b) A Relevant Organisation may enter into a commercial arrangement with a Wagering Service Provider with the written consent of AFF. Such consent may be withheld at the discretion of AFF where the proposed commercial arrangement:
 - (i) conflicts with an existing commercial arrangement made between AFF and a Wagering Service Provider(s); and/or
 - (ii) is with a Wagering Service Provider with whom AFF has not entered into an integrity agreement as required under any applicable state/territory gambling legislation.
 - (iii) is, in the NSO's opinion, contrary to the interests of the Fencing.
- (c) Subject to clause 6.3(b), a Relevant Person or Relevant Organisation must not:

OFFICIAL

- (i) enter into any form of commercial arrangement with a Wagering Service Provider;
- (ii) induce, advertise or promote betting on an Activity, without the prior permission of AFF; or
- (iii) promote or endorse a Wagering Service Provider.

Appendix A: Examples of Prohibited Conduct

1. For the purposes of clause 4.1(a)i. of this Policy, examples of Prohibited Conduct whereby a Relevant Person participates (whether by act or omission) in improperly altering the result or the course of an Activity in order to remove all or part of the unpredictable nature of the Activity to obtain a Benefit for themselves or others include, but are not limited to:
 - (a) intentionally conceding points;
 - (b) pre-arranging the outcome, or the course of a competition, including through influencing athlete selections and strategy;
 - (c) deliberate underperformance (also known as 'tanking') in any manner (through selections or not playing to a person's merits), including for the intention to progress to an easier draw, or for the intention of benefiting a 'friendly' opponent;
 - (d) intentional unfair or incorrect officiating.

2. However, 'improperly' in this context means not in accordance with standard sets of behaviour accepted in Fencing. Some practices in Fencing may, when applying a strict interpretation without context, be seen as Prohibited Conduct; however, that conduct is in accordance with standard sets of behaviour accepted in Fencing. The following does not constitute Prohibited Conduct, include, but are not limited to:
 - (a) selecting specific athletes for a qualification event to maximise entry quotas of the associated club or representative team/squad;
 - (b) resting players/athletes for a legitimate competitive objective such as the development of the team or other players, or the management of player fatigue or injuries;
 - (c) resting players/athletes from a match or race of a competition to maximise a team performance in the finals; or
 - (d) not selecting a player for an entire series or tour to provide them with an extended rest period in preparation for a future series or tour.

Appendix B: Examples of Direct and Indirect Connections for a Relevant Person

1. A Relevant Person has a direct connection to an Activity if they are:
 - (a) an Athlete participating/competing in the Activity;
 - (b) a coach or support personnel of a Team or Athlete participating in the Activity;
 - (c) a trainer/para-medical of a Team or Athlete participating in the Activity;
 - (d) a referee, umpire, technical official, judge, or official, of the Activity appointed by a Relevant Organisation;
 - (e) An Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer involved in the organisation of the Activity.

2. A Relevant Person has an indirect connection to an Activity if (but not limited to):
 - (a) the Activity is a single race, match, or competition the Relevant Person does not directly participate in; however, it is a part of a series, tournament, or season competition, of which the Relevant Person participates in, or is directly connected to. For example, if a Relevant Person's team competes in the state Fencing series which involves another nine teams in a 10-round draw, that Relevant Person is prohibited from betting on any match in the entire state Fencing series.
 - (b) they are an Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer with a Relevant Organisation organising the Activity. For example, if the Relevant Person is an Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer of AFF and the AFF organises the national championships, the Relevant Person is prohibited from betting on any competition, match, or race of that national championships.
 - (c) the Activity includes participants competing on behalf of a Relevant Organisation and the Relevant Person is an Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer of that Relevant Organisation. For example, if a regional representative team is competing at the state championships, an Employee, Contractor, or Volunteer of the relevant regional association is prohibited from betting on any Activity at those state championships.

For the avoidance of doubt, simply being an Individual Member of a Relevant Organisation does not imply an indirect relationship to the Activity. For example, an Individual Member of a Member Organisation, in the absence of any direct or indirect connection, is not prohibited from betting on an Activity that includes state or national Participants.
